Feast of the Holy Family

December 31, 2023

On the Feast of the Holy Family we will bless the expectant mothers in our Eastside Region. As we have just experienced the Blessed Mother giving life to the Christ Child on Christmas, we take time at Mass to pray for mothers who are experiencing the miracle of life. A gift so precious that we will take time to pray for a safe birth and healthy babies.

Amen? Amen!

Fr. Jamie

Good and Gracious God, watch over expectant mothers as they await the birth of their child. Grant these women confidence and strength to dispel their anxiety and fear. Bless them with the courage and faith of Mary, always listening to your will and trusting in your loving care.

Epiphany

Next week we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. On January 6 we also celebrate our pastor's birthday! Take some time to write a nice note or a birthday card to Fr. Jamie. You can drop them off at any of the main offices and we will make sure he gets them.

PLEASE NOTE: the parish offices are currently closed for Christmas and will reopen on January 2.

PRAY THE ROSARY. WITNESS YOUR FAITH.

All men are invited to join in praying the rosary the first Saturday of every month at 7:30 AM on the steps in front of Saint Cecilia Church. Join them next on Saturday, January 6, to offer prayers to our Mother Mary.

BROTHERHOOD OF THE
HOLY ROSARY

From the Oratory of Saint John Vianney

The Oratory is part of St. Cecilia Parish and devoted to prayer for the priests of our Archdiocese, through the intercession of St. John Vianney, patron of parish priests. Please join us this week in praying for Fr. Alex McCullough, Fr. Christian Cone-Lombarte, Fr. Roberto Becerra Reyes (Queen of Apostles Parish Family), Fr. Chris Worland (St. Andrew), Fr. Oscar Seger (retired). Special thanks to those who have offered to help send notes of thanks and encouragement to the priests we are praying for each week!

WELCOME TEAM Would you like to be part of a team to help welcome new parishioners to the Oratory? Please see the signup sheet in the back of church.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

Today, we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. We think that their lives were perfect, far from it. Mary gave birth in a stable that did not resemble the one we see on Christmas cards. It was dark and dank. Then, later on, they had to move to Egypt overnight to escape the wrath of Herod. Then, when Jesus was twelve years old, they lost Him for three days. Joseph died before Jesus began His ministry. Jesus died on the cross like a common criminal. They weren't called The Perfect Family but The Holy Family, which all families should strive to be in a humble way.

Fr. Ken Schopf

From the School Office

Come and visit your "school family" during Catholic Schools Week. Open House is on Sunday, January 28 following the 10:30 am Mass until 1:00 pm. Stop by the school office for a personal tour. Happy New Year!

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST'S CORNER

Joy to the World by Scott Hahn

Joy to the World by Scott Hahn is written as a meditation on the Holy Family, specifically at the time of Jesus' Incarnational birth. Throughout the book, Dr. Hahn expounds on the historical circumstances of the time Mary and Joseph were living in and engages in rich scriptural analysis on the passages relating to the birth of Jesus. As we approach Christmas, we often hear the phrase "Keep Christ in Christmas." What Joy to the World strives to do is put the focus of Christmas on the family. The parents are the primary educators of their children and the way through which they experience the Catholic faith. Dr. Hahn throughout the book holds up Mary and Joseph as the ideal mother and father. Mary gives her fiat, her agreement, to being the mother of God and allowing God to receive a human nature from her. Some theologians use the word "co-redemptrix" when talking about our Blessed Mother because, without her saying "yes" to the Incarnation, God would not have become Incarnate. God chose to place the decision of humanity's salvation on a woman, a mother. In the same way, all mothers have the task of nurturing their children and teaching how to fulfill their purpose in life, which is to get to Heaven. As for St. Joseph as a father he lived out his role of protector of the Holy Family perfectly and is a model for all fathers. Even though we never hear one word from St. Joseph in Scripture, his actions tell us the depth of his love for Mary and Jesus. He honored Mary's virginal oath to God and was chaste in his relationship with her without it taking away one ounce of his love for her. He was willing to leave his home and travel to Egypt all to protect Jesus. All fathers are called to love their spouses and children like St. Joseph, willing to sacrifice their lives for them as a mortification of love. Christmas is a time to reflect on both Jesus and his parents. Particularly in a culture where the family is largely devalued, this book is a wonderful way to place the focus of this Christmas on the family and to strive to grow holier as a family through the model of the Holy Family. (Reviewed by David Homoele)

1 A CASH GIFT in any amount is a convenient and popular way to show your faithful support for the church and our ministries. If you itemize, the full amount of your gift qualifies for a 2023 charitable income tax deduction. Make certain your check is dated 2023 and received or postmarked no later than December 31, 2023, to receive a deduction this year.

2 MAKE A GIFT WITH YOUR IRA
 Congress made the qualified charitable distribution (QCD) a permanent rule in 2015. It allows owners of a traditional IRA to exclude RMDs from their adjusted gross income (AGI) if they give the money to an approved charity, also known as a qualified charitable organization. The QCD rule allows you to give the amount you donate from your IRA directly to charity without ever receiving it as income. Therefore, you pay no income taxes on the gift. The transfer generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, so you benefit even if you do not itemize your deductions. Since the gift doesn't count as income, it can reduce your annual income level. This may also help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax. Best of all, you can start taking QCDs at age 70½; you don't have to wait until you hit 73.

3 GIVING UNNEEDED LIFE INSURANCE
 Do you own an old life insurance policy that is no longer needed? Perhaps the purpose for the policy no longer exists (your children are grown, or your mortgage is paid off) or your financial situation has changed and mitigates the need for the insurance. Consider giving the policy to the church and receive a charitable income tax deduction for the lesser of your cost basis or the replacement value. This is a great way to benefit a cause you support without reducing your checking account. If the value is more than you wish to donate, consider cashing in the policy and giving a lesser portion. Your gift may sufficiently reduce or eliminate any potential taxes due from the sale. Please speak to your insurance advisor for more information.

4 Year-end is also the Christmas season. For many Catholics, this is an occasion to give in gratitude for God's greatest gift to us, Jesus Christ. In all our giving, let us never forget these familiar words, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only son..." Why not make a special effort to honor Him in your giving this Christmas season—perhaps the most important gift you give? May God bless you as you make this expression of your faith.

As always, please consult your tax and/or insurance advisor for any questions or concerns you may have regarding tax deductible or charitable donations.*

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Gn 15:1-6; 21:1-3

The word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying: "Fear not, Abram! I am your shield; I will make your reward very great." But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what good will your gifts be, if I keep on being childless and have as my heir the steward of my house, Eliezer?" Abram continued, "See, you have given me no offspring, and so one of my servants will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "No, that one shall not be your heir; your own issue shall be your heir." The Lord took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be." Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness. The LORD took note of Sarah as he had said he would; he did for her as he had promised. Sarah became pregnant and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time that God had stated. Abraham gave the name Isaac to this son of his whom Sarah bore him.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Blessed are all who fear the LORD, and walk in his ways!
By the labor of your hands you shall eat.
You will be blessed and prosper. R.

Indeed thus shall be blessed the husband who fears the LORD.
May the LORD bless you from Zion.
May you see Jerusalem prosper
all the days of your life! R.

Your wife like a fruitful vine
in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive around your table. R.

Second Reading

Heb 11:8, 11-12, 17-19

Brothers and sisters: By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; he went out, not knowing where he was to go. By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age --and Sarah herself was sterile-- for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy. So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sands on the seashore. By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer his only son, of whom it was said, "Through Isaac descendants shall bear your name." He reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead, and he received Isaac back as a symbol.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Lk 2:22, 39-40

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord.

When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Recessional Hymn

Hark! The Herald Angels Sing

1. Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King;
Peace on earth, and mercy mild
God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful, all you nations, rise;
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!"

2. Christ, by highest heav'n adored,
Christ the everlasting Lord:
Late in time behold him come,
Offspring of the Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see:
Hail the incarnate Deity,
Pleased as man with us to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.
Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!"

3. Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Ris'n with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that we no more may die,
Born to raise each child of earth,
Born to give us second birth.
Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!"

A Prayer for our Alumni
Loving God, we are grateful for the many gifts you have given to us: The gifts of life, love, family, friends, faith, and our Catholic schools. Thank you for guiding those who have so generously given of themselves throughout the years in the promotion and growth of our schools. May their dedication and sacrifice continue to make it possible to bring Christ to your beloved children. We ask your blessings on the outreach of the Alumni of St. Mary Grade School.
Open the hearts of our alumni so that through their dedication and sacrifice, our schools may continue to flourish.
Amen.
