Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus June 9, 2024

June is the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. One way we can honor His Sacred Heart is by attending Holy Mass on the first Friday of every month for nine consecutive months, and to receive Holy Communion. Jesus made twelve promises to anyone who answered the pleading of His Sacred Heart. I encourage you to take time to slow down this June and read the book "The Letters of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque: Apostle of the Sacred Heart" which outlines the twelve promises. This is a wonderful way to honor His Sacred Heart.

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Jesse

The Twelve Promises of the Sacred Heart:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life.
2. I will establish peace in their homes.
3. I will comfort them in all their afflictions.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.
5. I will bestow abundant blessings upon all their undertakings.
6. Sinners will find in My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Lukewarm souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall quickly mount to high perfection.
9. I will bless every place in which an image of My Heart is exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. Those who shall promote this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart.
12. I promise you in the excessive mercy of My Heart that My all powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Fridays in nine consecutive months the grace of final perseverance; they shall not die in My disgrace, nor without receiving their sacraments. My divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.

Sacred Heart Enthronement

The enthronement of the Sacred Heart in a Catholic home is a public profession of faith and a recommitment to Christ. It can serve as a source of strength, protection, and blessing for the family, and can help members grow in their relationship with Jesus. We will have upcoming information on how to enthrone your home in the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Join the Oratory in Praying for Priests!

Please join us in praying for: Fr. Martin Bachman, Fr. Gerard Hiland, and Fr. Don Siciliano (Divine Mercy Family of Parishes), Fr. Thomas Nolker, and Fr. George Schmitz (both retired). May their lives and ministry bear witness to the mercy and faithfulness of God. Please consider joining in the Rosary especially offered for these priests at the Oratory each weekday at 11:15, before the 11:45 Mass. If anyone interested in the mission of writing and sending thank you notes to priests of our Archdiocese please send an email to hutchdale52@gmail.com with contact information. Notes are written every five weeks approximately by each member of the mission.

FATHER'S DAY PICNIC

Sunday, June 16, from 1-8 PM at Stricker's Grove

Gates open at 12:30 PM.

Free admission, free rides, & free soft drinks and draft beer!

We will provide the meat and we ask parishioners to bring side dishes and desserts to share.

There is a covered shelter and an air-conditioned hall.

FAMILY of PARISHES

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

Someone once said that when we rationalize sin, we should refer to The Ten Commandments as The Ten Suggestions. We make excuses for our wrongdoings. When we do wrong, we should own it and confess. Confessions are good for the soul. When was the last time you went?

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST'S CORNER

The Keys of the Kingdom by A.J. Cronin

The Keys of the Kingdom is one of the early novels of A.J. Cronin. A Scottish medical doctor turned novelist after a long convalescence. Cronin masterfully presents compelling and deeply relatable characters in his novels, among the most famous of which are The Citadel and The Keys of the Kingdom. This novel is one of Cronin's masterworks in its examination of Christianity and tolerance. It follows a Scottish priest, Francis Chisholm, from his earliest days in a mixed faith home. His childhood is beset by tragedy and he is given every excuse to walk away from his Catholic upbringing. Despite his suffering Francis finds himself called to the priesthood which leads him through several challenging positions as curate (parochial vicar in our parlance) before being asked to become a missionary to China. Francis readily accepts the assignment and sets out with a great fervor to bring Christ to the remote corners of China. This journey to the far east deftly leads the reader to question our assumptions about the glories of missionary work and highlights the challenge of putting aside our own selfishness and self interest when we choose to submit ourselves to God's will for our life. The Keys of the Kingdom tugs at the heart, filled with compelling examples of self-sacrifice, personal conflict, and the vicissitudes of God's providence. In my opinion it is a must read for those struggling to understand their place in God's plan. (Reviewed by Colin Kunath)

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Gn 3:9-15

After the man, Adam, had eaten of the tree, the LORD God called to the man and asked him, "Where are you?" He answered, "I heard you in the garden; but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself." Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked? You have eaten, then, from the tree of which I had forbidden you to eat!" The man replied, "The woman whom you put here with me—she gave me fruit from the tree, and so I ate it." The LORD God then asked the woman, "Why did you do such a thing?" The woman answered, "The serpent tricked me into it, so I ate it."

Then the LORD God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, you shall be banned from all the animals and from all the wild creatures; on your belly shall you crawl, and dirt shall you eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike at your head, while you strike at his heel."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

With the Lord there is mer-cy, and full-ness of re-demp-tion.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD;
LORD, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive to the sound of my pleadings. R.

I long for you, O LORD,
my soul longs for his word.
My soul hopes in the LORD
more than watchmen for daybreak. R.

If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities,
LORD, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
that you may be revered. R.

For with the LORD there is mercy,
in him is plentiful redemption.
It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities. R.

Second Reading

2 Cor 4:13—5:1

Brothers and sisters: Since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke, we too believe and therefore we speak, knowing that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and place us with you in his presence. Everything indeed is for you, so that the grace bestowed in abundance on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God. Therefore, we are not discouraged; rather, although our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen; for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal. For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, should be destroyed, we have a building from God, a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mk 3:20-35

Jesus came home with his disciples. Again the crowd gathered, making it impossible for them even to eat. When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him, for they said, "He is out of his mind." The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "By the prince of demons he drives out demons." Summoning them, he began to speak to them in parables, "How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him. But no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder the house. Amen, I say to you, all sins and all blasphemies that people utter will be forgiven them. But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin." For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." His mother and his brothers arrived. Standing outside they sent word to him and called him. A crowd seated around him told him, "Your mother and your brothers and your sisters are outside asking for you." But he said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

1. There's a wideness in God's mercy
 Like the wideness of the sea;
 There's a kindness in God's justice
 Which is more than liberty.
 There is plentiful redemption
 In the blood that has been shed;
 There is joy for all the members
 In the sorrows of the Head.

2. For the love of God is broader
 Than the measures of the mind;
 And the heart of the Eternal
 Is most wonderfully kind.
 If our love were but more faithful,
 We should rest upon God's word;
 And our lives would be thanksgiving
 For the goodness of our Lord.

3. Troubled souls, why will you scatter
 Like a crowd of frightened sheep?
 Foolish hearts, why will you wander
 From a love so true and deep?
 There is welcome for the sinner,
 And more graces for the good;
 There is mercy with the Savior,
 There is healing in his blood.
