Father's Day June 16, 2024

One of the exciting books that came out this year was written by our own staff member, Deacon Joe Grote. His book, "Where Have all the Fathers Gone," addresses the need for fathers to be more involved with their families and children. Each day there is a short reading on the subject of parenting, marriage, and being neighborly. We are very excited that he has this book out for men to get the opportunity to grow in their relationship with their children.

In this week's Gospel reading, we hear the parable of the mustard seed. It teaches us that something so small in appearance has such great significance and potential to grow. The greatest gift as a father, as well as a spiritual father, is to plant that small seed of faith and to help nourish it so it can grow to its full potential. Like the mustard seed, the seed of faith can grow strong and unmovable. The vocation of fatherhood is so critical to our children.

If you are interested in Deacon Joe's book, you can get it on Amazon as well as other booksellers. You can also contact Deacon Joe at: jgrote@eastsideparish.org.

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Jackie

JUNE IS THE MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

A remedy for fear, worry, unhappiness, family problems, confusion, and bitterness

Enthroned Jesus as KING OF YOUR HOME

When we enthrone Jesus in our homes we place a picture of His Sacred Heart in a prominent place to forever remind us of His great love for us and how we should gratefully love Him for His Goodness every day of our lives.

We honor Jesus in our homes when we invite Him to reign as King over our family. Then He teaches us the great lesson of Love so that in family joys and sorrows children and parents remain harmoniously one in His gentle and loving Heart.

Fr Ken Schopf

From the School Office

May God Bless all the fathers in our lives. We are grateful for their impact and loving presence. Happy Father's Day!

Eucharistic Revival on FORMED

FORMED

In just one month from tomorrow, tens of thousands of Catholics will gather in Indianapolis for the start of the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Pilgrims who have collectively traversed over 6500 miles will arrive with our Lord and join countless other faithful for a four-day renewal of their Catholic faith and devotion to Christ in the most Blessed Sacrament.

It will truly be an experience unlike any other, with beloved speakers such as Fr. Mike Schmitz, Christ Stefanick, Jonathan Roumie, Sister Miriam James Hudlund, Bishop Barron, and Dr. Mary Healy making up only a portion of the experience. Much of this Congress will be live-streamed and viewable from home if you are not able to make the journey out to Lucas Field, and we will have more on how this will work in the coming weeks, but for the time being we want to guide you to some other incredible resources that have been designed for you as we embark on this final year of the National Eucharistic Revival. Perhaps one of the greatest resources we have here at the parish is the site FORMED. FORMED is often referred to as “Catholic Netflix” since it boasts a catalogue of over 8,000 different recorded podcasts, audiobooks, Bible studies, and films to aid in deepening your Catholic faith. The best part is that it is completely free for our parishioners when they sign up using either parish’s zip code. Currently on this site, there is a section dedicated specifically to the Eucharistic Revival which features hours of films, conversations, Biblical exegesis, and other content designed for adults, children, and families. Maybe you find yourself struggling to understand where Catholics find their scriptural basis for believing the Eucharist is more than just a symbol but truly Jesus’ Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. If so, you can explore Brant Pitre’s Lectio Series “Eucharist.” Or maybe you are seeking a source of revitalization as you approach the altar in Mass and would benefit from listening to conversations regarding the Church’s many Eucharistic miracles. This section truly has something for everyone, and I encourage you to give it a peruse as we anticipate these final weeks leading up to the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and our 10th National Eucharistic Congress in Indy. (Reviewed by Haley Metzger)

Worship Aid for the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Ez 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord GOD: I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you, to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to make music to your name,
O Most High,

to proclaim your loving mercy in the morning, and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm tree,
and grow like a Lebanon cedar.

Planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God. R.

Still bearing fruit when they are old,
still full of sap, still green,
to proclaim that the LORD is upright.
In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

refrain tr. © 1969, ICEL.

Second Reading

2 Cor 5:6-10

Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mk 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come."

He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

We Walk By Faith

1. We walk by faith, and not by sight: No gracious words we hear
Of him who spoke as none e'er spoke, But we believe him near.

2. We may not touch his hands and side, Nor follow where he trod;
Yet in his promise we rejoice, And cry "My Lord and God!"

3. Help then, O Lord, our unbelief, And may our faith abound;
To call on you when you are near, And seek where you are found:

4. That when our life of faith is done In realms of clearer light
We may behold you as you are In full and endless sight.

5. We walk by faith, and not by sight: No gracious words we hear
Of him who spoke as none e'er spoke, But we believe him near.

Text: Henry Alford, 1810-1871, alt.

Recessional Hymn

Let All Things Now Living

1. Let all things now living
A song of thanksgiving
To God the Creator triumphantly raise,
Who fashioned and made us,
Protected and stayed us,
And guides us with care to the end of our days.
God's banners are o'er us,
God's light goes before us,
A pillar of fire shining forth in the night:
Till shadows have vanished
And darkness is banished,
As forward we travel from light into light.

2. God rules all the forces:
The stars in their courses
And sun in its orbit obediently shine;
The hills and the mountains,
The rivers and fountains,
The deeps of the ocean proclaim God divine.
We too should be voicing
Our love and rejoicing;
With glad adoration a song let us raise
Till all things now living Unite in thanksgiving:
"To God in the highest, hosanna and praise!"
