Children's Choir Camp

I am excited to announce the Children's Choir Camp for our Eastside Parish Family! The camp will run from Monday, August 12 through Thursday, August 15. It will be held from 9 am to 11:30 am each day at the Oratory of St. John Vianney. The camp is open to all children from 2nd through 8th grade. This choir will have its final performance at an actual Mass! The Mass will be on August 15 at 11:45 at the Oratory. Our choir director from the Oratory, Sarah Schmid, will be running the camp with Ryan Leep, the sacred music director from St. Cecilia. I really want to hear the voices of the children lifting up this Holy Day of Obligation so sign up your children soon! To do this please, contact Ryan Leep at rleep@eastsideregion.org. I have been hoping this could happen for a while and I'm excited that we can make this happen. This is open to all of the children from our three churches so please share the word and sign up.

Amen? Amen.

I wanted to thank the St. Cecilia Festival Chairs, Missy and Andy Cook and Eric and Melissa Kautz for their leadership again this year. What an event! I know how much work goes into making this happen. Our chairs for so many of the large booths and all of the volunteer positions make this great weekend such a success. Please make sure you take time to thank them for the hard work that goes into this!

God speaks in whispers and we live in a loud world. Hearing God's voice amidst the noise and busy-ness of our lives can be difficult. But He is always there to guide and help us, and He has given us other people and resources to help us, as well. If you think God may be calling you to religious life and you need someone to talk to, call Fr. Dan Schmitmeyer at 421.3131, ext. 2890.

Join the Oratory in praying for our priests! This week we are praying for: Archbishop Dennis Schnurr, Fr. Ryan Ruiz, Fr. Eric Wood, Fr. Jason Williams, and Fr. Daniel Schmitmeyer. May their lives and ministry bear witness to the mercy and faithfulness of God. Please consider joining in the Rosary especially offered for these priests at the Oratory each weekday at 11:15 AM, before the 11:45 AM Mass. If anyone is interested in the mission of writing and sending thank you notes to priests of our archdiocese, please send an email to hutchdale52@gmail.com with contact information. Notes are written every five weeks approximately by each member of the Thank You Note mission.

Elderly and Homebound Ministry

The Homebound Ministry group strives to connect with parishioners from St. Cecilia, the Oratory, and St. Mary who are temporarily or permanently not able to come to Mass and would still like to be involved in the community. If you or someone you know is interested in receiving weekly bulletins, connecting with another individual from the parish, or receiving communion, please let us know. Contact Laura Spaugh at 513-321-1207, ext. 414 or email lspaugh@eastsideregion.org.

If you have ever thought you would like to participate in serving your fellow parishioners by sending out weekly bulletins, stopping by for visits, taking the Eucharist, writing cards or delivering gifts, please go to our web page and sign up to help. <https://eastsidefaith.org/homebound-ministry>

TOGETHER

As we dive into the third year of the Eucharistic Revival, let us reinvigorate our participation at Mass and invite those who have wandered from our fold to return. Join us these next five weeks as we reflect on key components of the Mass and pray that our worship may be pleasing to God in Heaven as we give entirely of ourselves, together.

Source and Summit

“Nevertheless the liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows.

For the aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made sons of God by faith and baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of His Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord’s supper.” -Vatican II, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, #10.

When you think about heaven, what immediately comes to mind for you? Is it puffy clouds, reunions with family members, angelic choirs singing while St. Peter greets each soul in a more positive spin on border patrol? I think for a lot of us we can fall into this popular mindset of thinking that our final end will consist of some carefree paradise where we can enjoy all the pleasures of all our earthly life without the bitterness of sin undercutting these experiences. But what we really find when we look at the book of Revelation are scenes that likely sound strikingly familiar because they mimic moments of familiarity within the Mass. John’s visions of heaven are fundamentally rooted in divine worship taking place on the Lord’s Day. He describes scenes depicting the worship of God in His presence in the sanctuary, where priests and all the faithful offer praise and thanksgiving with references to the “Gloria”, “Alleluia”, “Holy, Holy Holy,” and countless other threads leading back to the Liturgy of the Word and Eucharist. As Dr. Scott Hahn says, “The golden thread of liturgy is what holds together the apocalyptic pearls of John’s Revelation.” This connection not only gives greater credibility to the celebration of the Mass as being the desirable form of worship in the mind of God, but it also can create great excitement within us. Christ desires to give us a foretaste of His marriage feast, when he will marry us as the Church, by instituting the sacrament of the Eucharist and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. He also, through His Body and Blood, equips each of us with His very self to assist us in fulfilling our will of overcoming temptation, becoming great saints and uniting all to Him through the witness of His Church. The Eucharist, who is Christ Himself, truly, is both our source of life, just like the manna in the desert for the Israelites, and the summit of all our earthly days, pointing ahead for what awaits us on high. In this week ahead, I challenge you to examine how this truth of the faith can add to your understanding of and renew your participation in the Mass? How can the nourishment of the Eucharist give you the strength to live as a disciple?

For more connections between the Mass and Revelation, check out The Lamb’s Supper: The Mass as Heaven on Earth by Scott Hahn.

Summer Fun

Come and join the 40s Plus Fun Bunch for fun and fellowship at a grill out at Ault Park. We will meet this Sunday, July 28 at 5 PM at the picnic area to the right of the Pavilion as you drive in, near the swing sets and overlook. There are tables and grills and bathrooms nearby. Burgers will be provided but please bring a side salad or dish to share. The flowers are gorgeous right now and feel free to walk around the park and enjoy them!

Please RSVP to stcfunbunch@gmail.com.

EPIC August Event

Our SENIOR MINISTRY for the Eastside Family of Parishes encourages you to plan on attending our Thursday, August 8 event from 5:30-8:30. This event begins with the 5:30 Mass at St. Mary Church. We start with Mass to give thanks for our vibrant senior community and to receive a special blessing for seniors. The first several pews will be reserved for us. Following Mass we will go down to Robisch Hall to share a catered meal and fellowship. Our very own school chef, Brandi, will prepare a fresh home-made meal for us to enjoy. A delicious dinner complete with desserts and beverages included. The cost per person is $10.00 payable upon reservation. Please RSVP to mlandrum@eastsideregion.org by Monday, August 5. If you have not yet attended one of the exciting EPIC events, I encourage to join us for this one. Feed your soul at Mass and your appetite with a lovely dinner with your fellow parishioners.

I look forward to seeing you there. Mary Landrum, EPIC, Chair

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

2 Kgs 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, "They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Eph 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Jn 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Offertory Hymn

You Are All We Have

Refrain

Verses

1. Protect me, Lord; I come to you for safety.
I say, "You are my God."
All good things, Lord, all good things that I have come from you,
the God of my salvation.
2. How wonderful are your gifts to me, how good they are!
I praise the Lord who guides me
and teaches me the way of truth and life.
3. You are near, the God I seek.
Nothing can take me from your side.
All my days I rest secure;
you will show me the path that leads to life.

Communion Hymns

Let Us Be Bread

Refrain

Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, bro-ken and shared, life for the world. Let us be wine, love free-ly poured.

Let us be one in the Lord.

Verse 1

1. I am the bread of life, bro-ken for all.

Eat now and hun-ger no more.

Verse 2

2. You are my friends if you keep my com-mands, no long-er ser-vants but friends.

Verse 3

3. See how my peo-ple have noth-ing to eat.

Give them the bread that is you.

Verse 4

4. As God has loved me so I have loved you.

Go and live on in my love.

By Your Hand, You Feed Your People

1. By your hand, you feed your people, food of angels, heaven's bread; For these gifts we did not labor, by your grace have we been fed:

Christ's own Body, blessed and broken, Cup o'erflowing, life outpoured, Given as a living token of your world redeemed, restored.

2. In this meal we taste your sweetness, bread for hunger, wine of peace; Holy Word and Holy Wisdom satisfy our deepest needs. Refrain

3. Send us now with faith and courage to the hungry, lost, bereaved; In our living and our dying, we become what we receive: Refrain

Recessional Hymn

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

2. O may this gracious God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
Preserve us in his grace,
And guide us in distress,
And free us from all harm
Till heaven we possess.

3. All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven--
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heav'n adore--
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.
