Fun Fest!

One of our late summer treats is always the St. Mary Fun Fest! I loved it last year when I saw so many of our Oratory and St. Cecilia parishioners volunteering to work and help out to make one of our other family parties such a success! To volunteer, please go to this link — www.signupgenius.com/tabs/13573DD07A7C9E8C60-stmary#/

There are so many ways to contribute as well. Go to the website to find out all of the events happening at the Fun Fest: www.stmaryfunfest.com.

My alma mater, Elder High School, is sending their marching band to kick off the festival. There will be bands playing, great food and drinks and the games are plentiful! I'm excited to say that $100,000 in sponsorship has been secured — THANK YOU! Biggest sponsorship year to date. We are so thankful for our sponsors.

Of course the most important thing for everyone to do is to join us next weekend and be sure to invite friends and families! We can not make this great without you.

Amen? Amen!

Fr. Jesse

NEXT WEEKEND AUGUST 16, 17 & 18

Bring friends to the festival.

We love welcoming our community and neighbors!

Friday: 6PM-12AM Saturday: 5PM-12AM Sunday: 3PM-8PM

On August 10 and 11 (St. Mary) and August 17 and 18 (Oratory of St. John Vianney and St. Cecilia), Sisters Anita Marie Stacy and Maria Francine Stacy will talk about the Sisters of Notre Dame mission in Buseesa, Uganda. Sr. Anita Marie was stationed there for 17 years. For some of the talks, two African sisters, who are visiting, will be able to accompany them. They will speak on the growth of the faith in a remote part of Africa. Please note that there will be a second collection at those Masses for the benefit of this mission. Both sisters grew up at St. John Vianney in Madison Place — welcome home, sisters!

Join the Oratory in praying for our priests! This week we are praying for: Fr. Paul DeLuca, Fr. Dennis Detenwanger, Fr. Thomas DiFolco, Fr. William Dorrman, and Fr. Richard Dressman. May their lives and ministry bear witness to the mercy and faithfulness of God. Please consider joining in the Rosary especially offered for these priests at the Oratory each weekday at 11:15 AM, before the 11:45 AM Mass. If anyone is interested in the mission of writing and sending thank you notes to priests of our archdiocese, please send an email to hutchdale52@gmail.com with contact information. Notes are written every five weeks approximately by each member of the Thank You Note mission.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

The second reading says to be imitators of God. The best way to do this is to see each other in His Image and Likeness and to forgive others as He forgives us. Please be generous to our missionary speaker this weekend and pray for good weather and a successful festival the following weekend.

From the School Office

Each year we embrace a school theme that helps us draw closer to God. The 2024-2025 school year theme is “We are God’s Children.”

- Act like a child of God
- Be a child of God
- Live like a child of God
- I am a child of God
- Love like a child of God

We look forward to welcoming our children on the first day of school, August 22.

TOGETHER

As we dive into the third year of the Eucharistic Revival, let us reinvigorate our participation at Mass and invite those who have wandered from our fold to return. Join us these next five weeks as we reflect on key components of the Mass and pray that our worship may be pleasing to God in Heaven as we give entirely of ourselves, together.

Sunday: Day of the Lord

“To lose a sense of Sunday as the Lord's Day, a day to be sanctified, is symptomatic of the loss of an authentic sense of Christian freedom, the freedom of the children of God. Sunday thus appears as the primordial holy day, when all believers, wherever they are found, can become heralds and guardians of the true meaning of time. It gives rise to the Christian meaning of life and a new way of experiencing time, relationships, work, life and death.”

-Sacrosanctam Concilium #73

It's kind of fun to think about all the different places I've experienced Sunday Mass: in the middle of the woods on the mountains of New Hampshire during a college retreat, in a ranch style house turned chapel in Flagstaff, Arizona, and even in my parents' basement during Easter 2020 with my uncle who is a priest. I'm sure that you and your family have some similar experiences! Notably, however, one of the most interesting Sunday Mass moments I've ever had took place two years ago in Seaside Heights, New Jersey. “Are you girls here for a sports tournament?” a kind older lady asked my best friend as she looked at the pew full of twenty-some-things. “Nope,” she replied with a smile, “we're on a Bachelorette weekend for our friend and most of us are Catholic.” The lady looked both humored and satisfied with her response, and I couldn't help but thank God in that moment for the faith and friendship of that group.

What connects these stories, and why am I sharing them? Are they to emphasize how amazing it is that we can travel all over the country and world and find the same celebration of the Mass? Are they to reinforce how important faith-filled family and friends are in helping you live according to the guidelines of the Church? All these hypotheses are true, but the most sincere answer is one which connects directly to the quote we see inscribed above in Sacrosanctum Concilium. Pope Paul VI says through attending Sunday Mass regularly we, among many other things, become the “heralds and guardians of the true meaning of time.” To paraphrase, this weekly hour keeps our lives contextualized within and focused upon what our true end is in the Catholic life: to experience the beatific vision of Heaven and live united with God forever. Each and every one of us is endlessly busy with a long list of events and “to dos” which both bring us tremendous joy and consume our energy in positive and negative ways. Our presence at Sunday Mass is a weekly Easter, giving us an abundant opportunity for recognition of and thanksgiving for what God has done for us in the past, how He is here with us in the present, and where He will continue to lead us in the future. But as Paul IV notes, Sunday Mass doesn't just allow us to be “guardians” but “heralds”. This means that our regular attendance at Mass becomes a witness for others. How powerfully it speaks to our family, friends, and community about the importance of devotion to God when we not only forego activities that conflict with our ability to gather for Mass on Sundays but also when we take joyful experiences, like vacations, out of town athletic tournaments, or even the occasional Bachelorette party, and give God his due worship through it all? And furthermore, how much more can it speak to our freedom from what are truly lesser attachments in the world in order to pursue that relationship with the Lord which is most important. As life inevitably gets busy as we begin this fall, let us challenge ourselves to be, as Pope Paul VI says, “guardians and heralds” through our celebration of each Sunday.

How do I and my family honor Sunday as the Lord's Day, both with regard to our attendance of Mass and the activities of the entire day? - Haley Metzger

SACRAMENTAL SIGN-UPS!

Is your child entering the 2nd or 7th grade and wishing to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion or Confirmation? If so, please ensure that they are enrolled at the parish schools or in our Family of Faith program. Sacramental preparation classes begin for both pathways in September, and September 30th is the last day to register. After this date, our sacramental rosters will be finalized. Please see the Family of Faith graphic to register, and email Haley Metzger, at hmetzger@eastsideregion.org, with questions.

EPIC: Mackinac Here We Come!

The EPIC senior group will be taking a road trip to Mackinac Island from September 30 - October 4. The bus filled up quickly! 47 of us will be enjoying the sites, food and fun in Northern Michigan. Please pray for a safe and happy journey for us.

On Wednesday, October 23, we will be back on parish ground with a Tour and History of St. Cecilia Church by Billie Jean Schimian. Lunch at a local establishment will follow the tour. We have toured the Oratory of St. John Vianney at St. Anthony Church with Dave Bulman and St. Mary Hyde Park lead by Ron Lamping. This will complete our family of parishes' tours. It is a fantastic way to learn about the beauty and historical richness of our Family of Parishes. Stay tuned for details.

As always, contact me anytime to learn more about this vibrant senior group and the adventures we share — Mary Landrum at mlandrum@eastsideregion.org.

Service Opportunity ... for some Simple Sewing

The Saint Cecilia Worship Commission has two sewing projects that involve cutting fabric and simple straight stitches using a sewing machine. Nothing complicated! A little embroidery work is needed to sew small red crosses on corporals, the square altar linen used at Mass. If you can help, contact Terrie Kemper at HappyKemper@fuse.net or 513-807-8071.

Elderly and Homebound Ministry

The Homebound Ministry group strives to connect with parishioners from St. Cecilia, the Oratory, and St. Mary who are temporarily or permanently not able to come to Mass and would still like to be involved in the community. If you or someone you know is interested in receiving weekly bulletins, connecting with another individual from the parish, or receiving communion, please let us know.

Contact Laura Spaugh at 513-321-1207, ext. 414 or email lspaugh@eastsideregion.org.

If you have ever thought you would like to participate in serving your fellow parishioners by sending out weekly bulletins, stopping by for visits, taking the Eucharist, writing cards or delivering gifts, please go to our web page and sign up to help: <https://eastsidefaith.org/homebound-ministry>. Our next meeting for volunteers will be August 15 in the Commons at St. Cecilia at 7 p.m.

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

1 Kgs 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

1. I will bless the LORD at all times; praise of him is always in my mouth. In the LORD my soul shall make its boast; the humble shall hear and be glad.

2. Glorify the LORD with me; together let us praise his name. I sought the LORD, and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free.

3. Look toward him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This lowly one called; the LORD heard, and rescued him from all his distress.

4. The angel of the LORD is encamped around those who fear him, to rescue them. Taste and see that the LORD is good. Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

Second Reading

Eph 4:30—5:2

Brothers and sisters: Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Jn 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

All Creatures of Our God and King

1. All creatures of our God and King,
Lift up your voice and with us sing:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O burning sun with golden beam
And silver moon with softer gleam:
Sing your praises! Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

2. O rushing wind and breezes soft,
O clouds that ride the winds aloft:
Sing your praises! Alleluia!
O rising morn, in praise rejoice,
O lights of evening, find a voice.
Sing your praises! Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

3. O flowing waters, pure and clear,
Make music for your Lord to hear.
Sing your praises! Alleluia!
O fire so masterful and bright,
Providing us with warmth and light,
Sing your praises! Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
