STEWARDSHIP MONTH:
Stewardship of Ministry

It is our mission to share the Gospel and bring people to the Light of Christ. This is reminiscent of leaving the dark side and fighting evil forces and to moving to the good side and joining forces with God. So many of the best stories are black and white, good versus evil. One of our ministries is faith formation, and this month, at our Cocktails with the Catechism, we will hear how we can join Jesus...at the movies. (Hence my Star Wars reference above.) Fr. Boddiker will blow you away with his knowledge and connections of our Gospel and different movies!

We have so many ministries in this family. One way that you can join a community of fellow Catholics is by being part of one of our ministries. Do you have a talent or a gift you can share? Do you have a good voice? Join one of our choirs! Do you know how to knit or crochet? Make blankets for gifts at baptisms. Do you love to decorate or help with liturgies? Join our Worship commissions. There are so many more ministries that you can be a part of in our family. If you have a talent you'd like to share with one of our ministries, please visit eastsidefaith.org/directory.

Amen? Amen.

Hurricane Relief

Parishioners interested in donating to Hurricane Helene relief efforts may do so directly to Catholic Charities USA at www.catholiccharitiesusa.org.

The Importance of the October Mass Count

The October count is crucial for determining how many priests are needed to serve our parishes. Please make it a priority to attend Mass at the church where you are registered. This helps the diocese accurately assess our needs and allocate priests accordingly.

Join the Oratory in Praying for our Priests!

This week we are praying for: Fr. Ed Smith, Fr. Stephen Hughes, Fr. Mike Paraniuk, Fr. Mark Bredestege, and Fr. Andrew Hess. Please consider joining in the Rosary especially offered for these priests at the Oratory each weekday at 11:15 AM, before the 11:45 AM Mass.

Happy Birthday!

Help Fr. Alex feel the love on his birthday next week! As many of you know, a priest's schedule doesn't end at 5 PM. Once they end their work day, there are evening meetings with different ministries, as well as meetings with engaged couples preparing for the sacrament of marriage. Many times, they need a gift card for a quick food stop or a card to buy books for further formation or to purchase new liturgical supplies. They also always appreciate a nice card of thanks. Be specific and let him know how much you appreciate what his priesthood has brought to our Eastside family!

Cocktails with the Catechism Encounter Jesus...At the Movies?

Enter one of the most fascinating crossovers the world has ever known: theology and human storytelling. Join Fr. Jacob Boddicker for a talk on Christological movie characters, from the likes of Star Wars to The Lord of the Rings, and discover how the story of salvation history is written on every human heart. The fun starts at 7 PM on Tuesday, October 22 at Big Ash Brewing.

World Mission Sunday is held annually on October 19-20. Every Catholic parish worldwide is called to celebrate the Gospel challenge to be in solidarity with all the world's peoples, especially those most in need of the Good News. Please bring your envelopes for the collection next week.

Vacation. I enjoyed some time off in the mountains for my vacation. I also was able to go to the Dixie Gas Show. They have fantastic antique signs and I was able to both sell and add to my collection. Zach Jarrell, our new intern, helped me pack and set up for the show. All in all, it was a very peaceful week.

St. Cecilia Students March. Seventh and Eighth graders are preparing to participate in the Ohio March for Life on Friday by creating posters to carry with them. Their hope is to encourage state lawmakers to pass legislation that respects all life in our state.

Church Search. Fr. Jamie went into the first grade class at St. Mary school and showed them items that they can find in church.

Priest Q & A. Fr. Alex visited the 4th grade religion class at St. Mary School for some questioning and answering the the students.

“You Go Into the Vineyard, Too...”

by Haley Metzger

One of the most enduring works that powerfully underscores stewardship of ministry is Christifideles Laeci, or “Christ’s Faithful Laity”, an apostolic exhortation written by Pope St. John Paul II in 1988. In it, JP II uses the scriptural parable of the laborers in the vineyard to illuminate the role and importance of everyday men and women in the mission of the Church. Found in the twentieth chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, the parable begins with a master who instructs hired laborers to go out into his vineyard and tend to its fruit. As the day goes on, he discovers more and more individuals who are ready and willing to assist him. Eventually, several hours later, there is still more work to be done, prompting him to deliver the line that John Paul II wishes to highlight: “you go into the vineyard, too” (Matthew 20:7). It seems to be a simple, even a throwaway line, yet our beloved Polish pope unearths a rich new understanding of it and its applicability to our lives. As the master in this parable continues to find himself in need of more hands to properly support the flourishing of his vineyard, so does our God call each one of us to participate in attending to the work of His harvest: the Church.

Oftentimes, we can be tempted to believe that each of us in the laity are neither called nor equipped for the Church’s mission of ministry.

But Christifideles Laeci both refutes this thought and galvanizes us for this challenge. “The call is a concern not only of Pastors, clergy, and men and women religious. The call is addressed to everyone: lay people as well are personally called by the Lord, from whom they receive a mission on behalf of the Church and the world.” When we reflect further on why this is we not only come to the conclusion that the work is simply too great to be attended to solely by those called to religious life but, furthermore, the growing challenges of secularization and skepticism of faith can often create spaces and communities which the laity may have greater ability to access.

As we reflect this Sunday on stewardship of ministry, let each of us reflect on this resounding line of “you go into the vineyard, too” and how it stirs us to embrace our share in the mission of the Church. How has God created us with our gifts and talents to be uniquely suited for some role in His plan? What time has He given us to dedicate to the building up of His Kingdom? Perhaps some of us have already felt the call to serve in some way within our family and we have begun this mission. But if not, let your heart hear these words of the Master today, for the harvest is, indeed, great, and what the Church needs in laborers are certainly more than a few.

EASTSIDE CATHOLICS

The 40 Days for Life campaign, which seeks to end the practice of abortion through prayer and fasting, continues to convert hearts and minds as we make our way through the month of October. Once again, we invite you to join us in this 40 Days campaign by volunteering a half hour of your time to pray outside of Planned Parenthood. Scan the QR code to access the St. Mary signup or email Brigid Duffy at bswartz@fuse.net for the St. Cecilia time slots. And if you don't feel called to witness in this way, please continue to offer up your daily prayer and time in front of the Blessed Sacrament for this important intention.

A Culture of Life

As we examine the issue of abortion in the modern world, perhaps one of the greatest temptations is to believe that there is nowhere for women experiencing an unplanned pregnancy to turn for assistance. This could not be further from the truth. When we look around our own community, we have a myriad of organizations that work diligently to provide every level of support a mother may need as she chooses life. Mater Filius House, for example, welcomes in women who may not have a place to live. As they continue to prepare for the birth of their child, they are able to live in community with other expectant mothers, learn how to cook and care for their baby, receive coaching and professional development, and cultivate a life of prayer. On our own side of Cincinnati, Pregnancy Center Plus continues to empower women to embrace each new life and equip them with everything that they need from both a material and personal perspective: parent education classes, baby supplies, life coaching, financial planning, and ultrasounds, just to name a few. These incredible groups rely on the generosity of the community to continue to make abortion unthinkable in the minds of our young people. This weekend, we invite you to take one of the baby bottles at the entrances of the church and fill them up throughout the month of October. Remember, each time you drop a few coins or dollars into it, you are helping a mom from Hyde Park, Oakley, or Madisonville in making the heroic choice to embrace God's beautiful gift of new life. These bottles can be returned on the weekend of November 3rd at each location. Thank you for your support in not just making abortion illegal but unthinkable in our community!

All Saint Parade

Save the Date for our All Saints Parade on Sunday, November 3. We will once again host this opportunity at all three locations for the following Mass times: 9:30 AM at the Oratory, 10 AM at St. Cecilia, and 10:30 AM at St. Mary. If you are new to this tradition, simply have your child select a saint they wish to dress up as and then begin constructing their costume in the coming weeks. Remember, dark bath towels paired with white turtlenecks make great habits! Stay tuned for more details!

The Children's Choir

The Children's Choir will be singing at the 5:30 PM Mass on November 1, All Saints Day, at St. Cecilia. All children, grades 2-8, are invited to sing and dressed as their favorite saint as a part of our "Choir of Saints" for the Mass. Rehearsals will take place at St. Cecilia on October 16 and 23 from 5:30 to 6:55 PM. For more information or to register your children, please contact Ryan Leep at rleep@eastsidefamily.org.

UPCOMING EVENTS

THE 10TH ANNUAL MEN'S EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION

The annual Men's Eucharistic Process is on Saturday, October 19. The day will begin with 8 a.m. Mass with Archbishop Dennis Schnurr and Covington Bishop John Iffert concelebrating at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains, followed by the Eucharistic Procession through downtown Cincinnati and concluding at 11:00 a.m. with final Benediction at Old St. Mary's Church.

In this third year of the National Eucharistic Revival, this is a wonderful event for men and boys of all ages, and families of multiple generations, to experience together. There were over 1,000 men participating last year and the organizers hope to far exceed that total this year.

EPIC: Extraordinary Parishioners Involved in Community 65+

Our Wednesday, October 23 event begins with a tour and history of St. Cecilia Church at 11:30 led by Billie Jean Schimian. After the tour we will take a short walk to the Oak Tavern, an Oakley establishment, to enjoy lunch. The Oak has a lovely covered outdoor space and good food. Lunch is on your own and please indicate if you will be joining us when you RSVP by October 15th to mlandrum@eastsideregion.org

October 26: Young Adult Bonfire Night with Deacon Nathan & Family

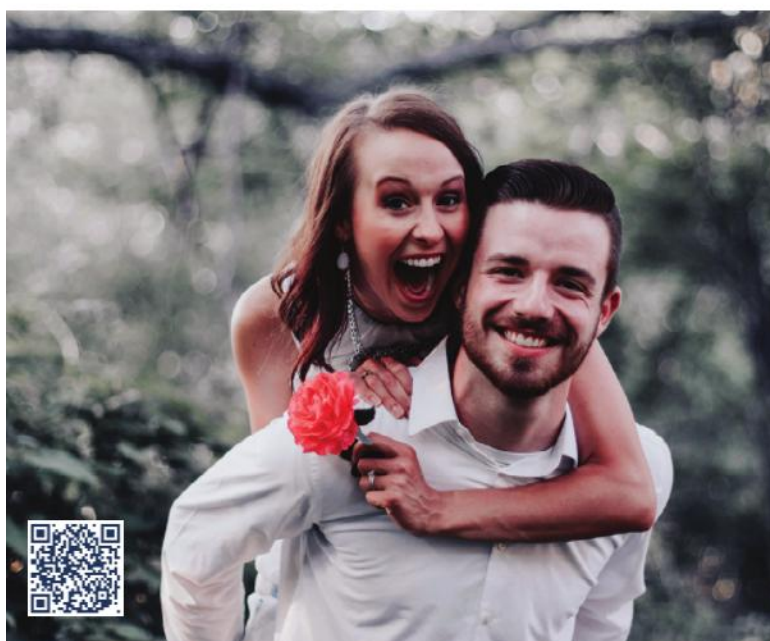

Love fall bonfires and chili? The Beiersdorfers do, and they are inviting our young adults to come out to their farm for a bonfire, rosary and stargazing, with some chili, drinks, and friends. Have a favorite chili recipe you'd love to share (or want to heat up some Sky-line)? Bring it along to share with everyone. More information on this can be found in the weekly young adult newsletter.
